THE JANSSEN PIANO

Represents a standard of artistic piano making seldom attained. The final test of quality is service and that the service yielding character of the Janssen is unusual is universally conceded. Janssen pianos grace the homes of a large number of the most critical and discriminating musicians in south-western Michigan. They are built to meet the requirements of those that know.

In tone, in scale, in touch each Janssen is a masterpiece. The case designs are superbly beautiful. Yet the Janssen is moderate in price and may be purchased upon convenient terms of payment.
